Reds Drive Toward Capital of Former Crimean Republic

Moscow Dispatches Say General Yeremenko's Caucasian Troops Are Advancing Steadily From Kerch Peninsula to East

NOOSE IS TIGHTENING THE POCKET AT SKALA

BULLETIN
London, April 13.—(P)—Red army troops, moving swiftly in the clearing of the Crimea of Germans and Romanians, have captured Yevpatoriya, on the west coast 42 miles north of Sevastopol, and Feodosiya, on the south coast, 100 miles east of the naval base, Marshal Joseph Stalin announced in two orders of the day.

By EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, April 13.—(P)—Kuban Cossack cavalry, light tanks and columns of motorized artillery—vanguards of Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukrainian Army racing down through the Crimea—were within sight of the tall buildings of Simferopol, capital of the former Crimean republic, today and only 35 miles north of the great Black Sea naval base of Sevastopol.

Tolbukhin's army was striking toward Simferopol from the north and northwest in its drive down the central Crimean railroad from Karachakangil, 11 miles to the north. Yesterday his troops had crashed through crumbling Axis forces for a record plunge of 43 miles from Dzhankoi.

JAP DRIVE ON INDIAN FRONT SLOWS DOWN

Mountbatten Communique Reports General Improvement in Situation Around Kohima

HAND-TO-HAND CLASH

Washington, April 13.—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson said today that Japanese troops had cut the road between Imphal and Kohima and "are attacking both towns."

He observed at the press conference where he made the disclosure that "it is not too difficult" for troops to penetrate in areas of the hills and jungles. A linear defense at Imphal, he said, could not be employed but it is possible in such fighting to retain certain strong points of defense. Thus far, he added, British and Indian troops are holding the strong points.

He said that "substantial reserves" of men and weapons are available in the area.

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor
Allied counter-attacks have slowed up the Japanese offensive against the Bengal-Assam railroad in India and Lt. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's troops have scored notable successes in their offensive against Japanese communications in Burma.

Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten's communique today reported general improvement in the situation around Kohima, where British forces are counter-attacking against enemy troops within 35 miles of the important Bengal-Assam railroad, and told of a Japanese defeat in hand-to-hand fighting northwest of besieged Imphal. Allied Indian base near the Burmese border 60 miles south of Kohima.

Casualties Of Nipponese In Pacific 26,000

Washington, April 13.—(P)—More than 26,000 Japanese have been killed in fighting in the southwest and central Pacific during recent months, Secretary of War Stimson said today.

Stimson, at a press conference, gave this summary of enemy casualties in the Pacific war:

Central Pacific—11,000 to 12,000 dead in the last three months.

Bougainville—5,370 from March 8 to April 8.

New Britain—4,679 since the landings there early this year.

The Sadoir sector of New Guinea—1,033 up to April 8.

Admiralty Islands—2,962.

Stimson said these Japanese casualties were all counted dead and "do not include those who died of wounds and of disease behind the enemy lines or were given mass burial" by the Japanese before American forces penetrated former enemy areas. Likewise, the totals do not include those who died on ships and barges attacked by the Allies or who met death in air raids on Japanese installations.

MacArthur Sounds Warning In Letter To Congressman

By JACK BELL
Washington, April 13.—(P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur has replied to a congressman's request that he hold himself available for the Republican presidential nomination with the assertion that the United States "must not inadvertently slip into the same condition internally as the one which we fight externally."

In an exchange of correspondence with Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.), the southwest Pacific commander wrote that he did not anticipate in any way the fulfillment of "fattering predictions" the house member had made that MacArthur could win the nomination and as Miller put it, "carry every state in the nation."

In a letter dated February 11, MacArthur wrote Miller that he appreciated very much the "scholarly letter" the house member had addressed to him January 27, in which Miller said "more than a political revolution" against the centralization of power in the federal government was underway.

The latter apparently was a reference to a declaration by Miller that the people are convinced that the "allocation of war supplies is not above critical examination" and an expression of hope that "some decisions soon will be made to send more supplies to the Pacific area where they can be used against the Japs."

Publication of the letters came at a time when there were reports that some of MacArthur's supporters wanted to slow down his campaign because of the growth of a bandwagon movement toward Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

The demonstrated ability of New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to attract convention delegates while maintaining his public position that he is not a candidate caused some worry among the leaders of campaigns being conducted for Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, Lieut. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

COAL PRODUCTION MAY BE AFFECTED BY RULE
Harrisburg, April 13.—(P)—Richard Maize, state mines secretary, looks for Pennsylvania's coal production to be affected by new Selective Service regulations permitting induction of miners under 22 after May 1 but said today it may be some time before its extent is known.

Maize explained Pennsylvania's 200,000 miners of all ages represent 30 per cent of the nation's mine workers but added he was unable to say how many are under 22 years of age.

In Washington, the solid fuels administration estimated there are 11,000 miners 18 through 21 in the eight coal mining regions affected by the order.

Honor Medal For Former Grid Star
Washington, April 13.—(P)—Captain Maurice L. Britt, infantry officer and former football star, has been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for action in Italy, the War Department announced today.

Britt, 24 years old, was born at Carlisle, Ark. His wife now lives at Fort Smith, Ark. He started his football career at the University of Arkansas in 1938 and joined the Detroit Lions pro team in 1941. Britt now is in Lawson General Hospital, Atlanta, recuperating after loss of his right arm, incurred in a battle after the one for which he was decorated.

Airman's Wish For Jaunty Cigarette Holder Fulfilled

Phoenixville, April 13.—(P)—An air force lieutenant who lost his fingers in a Flying Fortress over Bremen and told a reporter he wished he knew "where the hell the president gets those long, jaunty cigarette holders," today had 38 "long, jaunty" holders of his own—and the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lt. Charles W. Spencer, now a patient at Valley Forge general hospital, was over Bremen with his Fortress last Nov. 26 when a shell ripped through the ship's nose flooding the cockpit with 50, below-zero air. As a result of the blast he lost his fingers, ears, nose and one eye.

Yesterday the War Department notified him the commanding general of the U. S. Strategic Air Forces in Europe had awarded him with the DSC. Through the mail, at the same time, came a flood of those "long, jaunty" cigarette holders.

While studying architecture at the University of Illinois, Spencer fell in love with Lois Jean Benson of Topeka, Kas., whom he married two years ago. He is a native of Peoria, Ill.

He said his toughest ordeal was the prospect of meeting his wife. But his fears were groundless.

When Lois saw him she rushed up to embrace him—and his temporary plastic nose fell off as they kissed (Turn to Page Nine)

DRIVE OPENS TO DISPOSE OF MAJOR BILLS

Three Committees Press Closely Behind Record 32 Billion Dollar Navy Appropriation Bill

EXPECT EARLY PASSAGE

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Washington, April 13.—(P)—Congress opened a heavy drive today to dispose of a group of major bills laid aside during the Easter recess.

While a record $32,000,000,000 navy appropriations bill had the right of way on the house floor, three committees pressed closely behind with measures dealing with lend-lease, extension of the price control program, and settlement of terminated war contracts. A fourth started a review of postwar employment prospects.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the appropriations committee predicted passage of the huge 1944-1945 naval supply bill by nightfall.

Stated to follow the navy bill to the floor is legislation to extend the lend-lease program another year beyond June 30, and Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) called a meeting of the rules committee to determine procedure.

The house banking committee hearings on legislation to extend the price control act beyond its current expiration date, next June 30, and called Chester A. Bowles, OPA chief, to give his views.

The matter of contract termination, and the method of making settlements with thousands of war contractors continued to occupy the naval committee with indications a bill might be ready next week.

Postwar employment came up at a hearing called by Chairman Colmer (D-Miss.) of the special committee on postwar economic planning with William Batt, chairman of the National Planning Association as the first witness.

Colmer announced that other witnesses would include William Green, head of the AFL, on April 17; Philip Murray, CIO President; F. C. Crawford, chairman of the board of the National Association of Manufacturers; Walter D. Fuller, president of the Curtis Publishing Company, and Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Five In Family Die In Fire At Beaver Falls

Beaver Falls, April 13.—(P)—Four small children and their mother were burned to death today and more than a score of persons driven into sub-freezing weather when fire that started in the Franklin McMaster's home in the Brady's Run district of near-by Fallston swept through three frame houses.

The dead, all trapped on the second floor of the McMasters home, are Florence McMasters, 34, the mother; two daughters, Sally, 8, and Jane 8 months, and two sons, Jack, 6, and William, 3.

The father was burned on the face, neck, and hands in attempting to rescue his family. His condition was reported fair at Beaver Valley General Hospital.

One son, Jacob, 13, escaped unscathed from the holocaust.

Firemen said the fire apparently started in the kitchen of the McMasters side of the large double house.

The Bud Douds family, in the other half of the double house, and families in homes on either side were quickly routed.

The flames jumped to the adjoining houses before firemen could arrive and all three dwellings were leveled.

The charred bodies of the five victims were removed from the ruins of the home after daylight this morning.

Casualties In War Now Total 178,681

Washington, April 13.—(P)—American casualties in the war now total 178,681.

Secretary of War Stimson said today army casualties reported through March 23 total 134,632. They represented 23,322 killed; 55,066 wounded; 28,014 missing; 28,230 prisoners.

Of the wounded 28,977 have returned to duty. Of the prisoners 1,677 are reported to have died of disease in prison camps, mostly in Japanese-occupied territory.

The latest navy casualty total is 44,949. Of these 18,749 are dead; 11,550 wounded; 9,374 missing; 4,421 prisoners.

Roads To Berlin and Tokyo Long and Bloody

New York, April 13.—(P)—War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes last night remarked that "the roads to Berlin and Tokyo are not only long, but bloody," and he added:

"Already our casualties, including killed, wounded, missing and prisoners, number 173,239; United Kingdom, 667,157, and the Soviet Republic 4,500,000.

"That, casualties of the enemy are almost double those of ourselves and our Allies, and we expect to keep them at that ratio."

Revamping Of Institutions In State Planned

Harrisburg, April 13.—(P)—Governor Martin today set up two commissions to study the possibility of revamping Pennsylvania penal and mental institutions in the postwar period.

Warden Stanley P. Ashe, of the Western State Penitentiary, Pittsburgh, heads the group to investigate penal institutions, with Dr. Howard K. Petry, superintendent of the Harrisburg State Hospital, directing the mental institution inquiry.

Ashe's group includes Herbert Smith, eastern penitentiary warden; Henry C. Hill, chairman of the state parole board; William S. Livengood, Jr., secretary of internal affairs and Judge Robert E. Woodside, Jr., of Dauphin county common pleas court.

Assisting Dr. Petry will be Dr. Charles A. Zeller, superintendent of the Philadelphia State Hospital; Dr. Grosvenor B. Pearson, Western State Psychiatric Hospital; Major General Charles R. Reynolds, department of health and Dr. William C. Sandy, director of the welfare department's bureau of mental health.

The governor said the commission will study institutions for the purpose of making the system of operation, location and expansion more efficient and economical. Findings will be reported to the 1945 legislature for action in post war developments.

"The first thing is saving money to taxpayers," Martin told his press conference. "This can be done in two ways in penal institutions."

THREE BABES DIE AS RESULT OF AN ERROR

New London, Conn., April 13.—(P)—Administrator Richard F. Hancock of the Lawrence Memorial hospital reported today that an error by an employee of the hospital's pharmacy department had resulted in the deaths of three infants. Seven others were seriously ill he said, and ten more under close observation.

Because of the error, the administrator said, boric acid powder instead of dextrose powder was used in preparing a formula fed to the 20 babies.

FINLAND REJECTS MODIFIED TERMS
Stockholm, April 13.—(P)—Russia's modified terms for peace with Finland apparently have been rejected, Finnish sources here said today after reports from Helsinki that parliament had given the government of Premier Linkomies a vote of confidence.

Linkomies had outlined the cabinet's stand on the latest Soviet armistice proposals at a secret session of parliament, and informed Finns in Stockholm said these discussions were a "repeat performance" of those which had failed when the original terms were refused.

There was no official word from Helsinki on what action was taken, but reports said the peace question "again was put back to the Russians."

ELEANOR TO SPEAK
Pittsburgh, April 13.—(P)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will make her second visit to Pittsburgh within three months when she speaks on May 10 before the Rotary Club's annual ladies' meeting.

Yank Planes Aim Double Blow On German Industries

Fifteenth Air Force In Italy Hit Messerschmitt Plant Northwest of Budapest, While Britain-Based Bombers Visit Hungary

BLOCKBUSTERS POUND BUDAPEST FOR FIRST TIME

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
London, April 13.—(P)—U. S. heavy bombers landed a double blow at German aircraft production today, striking from Italy at works in Hungary and from Britain at important plants in Germany.

The 15th Air Force, based at Foggia, Italy, hit a Messerschmitt factory near Gyor, 70 miles northwest of Budapest, as well as railroad car and machine works. The Tokyo-based 3rd Air Force, based at Saipan, hit an aircraft assembly plant 11 miles southwest of Budapest came under Liberator attack.

The Eighth Air Force, Britain-based, made a "four-bladed attack" on aircraft plants at Augsburg and Oberpfaffenhofen, airforce installations at Lechfeld, an oil barrel bearing works at Schweinfurt, an official announcement said. More than 500 bombers, accompanied by 750 to 1,000 fighter planes, went on this operation.

Today's blows at Hungary followed a raid last night upon that nation's capital. RAF Wellingtons flying from Italy hit Budapest with 4,000-pound blockbusters for the first time, in the third raid within a month against rail yards important to Adolf Hitler's supplies on the Russian front.

Probably about 500 Fortresses and Liberators participated in today's Italy-based onslaught, which carried into the sixth straight day the current offensive to wipe out the bulk of the German airforce, both in the air and abiding, before D-day. The Vesces airbase 10 miles south of Budapest was another of the 15th Air Force targets, while railroad yards at Brod, Yugoslavia, halfway between Belgrade and Zagreb, bore another section of the attack.

German radio programs were broken for warnings of American aircraft penetrations both from the south and west.

Dawn assaults by both American Marauders hitting at France and Belgium and by British medium bombers at northern France carried the current air series into its sixth straight day.

Russian air forces also were throwing new weight into the Allied blows at the Balkans, the Moscow radio said, with Red army airforce attacks on Constanta, the Romanian port through which German forces cut off in the Crimea.

RAF Mosquitos carried the new offensive on through last night by attacking Osnabruck, about 75 miles west of Hanover.

Osnabruck was hit by a great number of high explosives including sixteen 4,000-pounders, a British announcement said.

British coastal towns opposite the French channel ports of Boulogne and Calais shook to heavy explosions.

A U. S. communique, meanwhile, announced that 26 Nazi planes were shot down over western Europe by American heavy bombers and fighters yesterday.

FLOOD NOT ANTICIPATED
Pittsburgh, April 13.—(P)—The weather bureau today predicted that recent heavy rains would crest the river today at 20 feet, 6 inches—four and a half feet below flood stage. The bureau said rivers were rising one-tenth of a foot an hour.

WOMAN WORKER KILLED
Philadelphia, April 13.—(P)—One woman was killed and two other women and a man burned today when a pot of boiling acid exploded at the Barrett division of the Allied Chemical and Dye Corp.

Three Men Die In Quaker City Fire
Philadelphia, April 13.—(P)—A third man died today and three others remained in critical condition following a naptha-fume explosion that touched off a six alarm fire yesterday at the Atlantic Refining Company's Point Breeze plant here.

A company spokesman said following examination of the blasted and charred area at 31st St. and Passyunk Ave. that the explosion occurred while some highly volatile naptha was being transferred from a storage unit to a dispersal tank.

The two hour fire that followed the blast gave the Office of Civilian Defense War Emergency Service its first opportunity to use two way radio equipment to aid firemen.

Sylvania Request for 500 Women and Girls Unfilled
Clear weather last evening brought out a fine group of women to the office of the Manpower Commission, which is engaged in enrolling 500 women and girls for the Sylvania Company. In all, 44 women were hired last evening, after having been interviewed and given tests for eyes. It is good eyesight and nimble fingers that count in this industry.

Manager David Levine of the Manpower Commission and Manager Arthur C. Chapman of the Sylvania Company are both sanguine that Warren women will enroll in sufficient numbers to fill the need. Lieut. Walker, U. S. A., who is in the city recruiting men and women for civilian workers at Camp Reynolds, in speaking at various places about the city also accented the good that women can do by entering industry. Lieut. Walker knows just what the men at the fighting front need and he can truthfully tell the women that their efforts at home are helping out the men in the fighting lines in a worthwhile manner.

The office of the Manpower Commission will be open this evening and it is expected that an even larger number will be present tonight than last night to enroll for essential war work. The office is also open every day until 5:30 and women may enroll at any time.

Citizen Hit By Auto April 2
Passes Away

William B. Colvin, 47, who was struck by an automobile operated by Dominick Scalise, 1014 Fifth avenue west, shortly before midnight April 2, while crossing Pennsylvania avenue east of Water street, died at the Hamot hospital in Erie Wednesday afternoon. He had been removed to that institution for treatment by a specialist.

The police report at the time of the accident stated that Mr. Colvin was crossing Pennsylvania avenue near the West Ridge Bus Company garage, when struck by the car operated by Scalise, who was accompanied by Leonard Imperial, 503 Public Way, enroute west. Investigation revealed that Scalise did not possess a driver's license, but was driving on a learner's permit, and Imperial did not have a license. Charges of operating without a license and reckless driving were placed against Scalise.

Investigation of the accident is being continued by the police department and District Attorney J. H. Goldstein.

Mr. Colvin, aged 47, was born in Clarendon and was employed by the Royal Manufacturing Company. He was a veteran of World War I, having served as a private in Base Hospital 108. He was in the first contingent to be drafted and saw service with the AEF in France.

He is survived by his wife, Cora A. Colvin; five children, William, of Grand Valley; Mrs. Evelyn Jarzynka, Howard, Brian and Ann, all of Warren; also his mother, Mrs. Adolph Stenstrom, Clarendon; two brothers and two sisters, Alfred and Jones Colvin, Warren; Mrs. Stella Gern, Warren RD 4, and Mrs. Lucia Halgren, Clarendon.

Funeral services will be held from the family home at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, followed by interment in the veterans' plot in Oakland cemetery. Members of Dinsmoor-Schwung Post, VFW, will have their ritual at the graveside.

Help Needed
At the Warren
State Hospital

Gerald Wright, steward at the Warren State Hospital today has a real problem on his hands due to the labor situation being encountered over the country. The hospital at present has the largest population in its history and the matter of securing attendants is one that is keeping Mr. Wright awake nights.

At present 150 men and women attendants are needed and the need is acute. The places are such that older men and women can well fill them and give the patients the care to which they are entitled. The pay is good for in addition to a substantial salary, board and room is furnished, all laundry is done and the workers are given medical attention and hospitalization if needed and minor dental care. There are few places where such emolument can be secured for this type of work.

Recruiting of the men and women will be done through the Man Power Commission and all applicants who desire such work will do well to contact the Manager of the Man Power Commission at the office 225 Pennsylvania avenue, west.

TIMES TOPICS

HEALTH IS GOOD

Health conditions about the borough are especially good at the present time. There are seven cases of chickenpox and six cases of mumps under quarantine at the present time. One case of scarlet fever has been reported but not verified as yet.

RAIN CUT ALARMS

Rains of the past few days seemingly have had a big effect on the number of fire alarms. With the grass wetted down on vacant lots about town there have been no grass fires which constitutes the greater number of spring fires. The firemen have not had a run in several days.

NUMBER IS LOWER

The number of fishing licenses sold at the office of County Treasurer is now only about 300 which is at least 100 fewer than were sold last spring. This is a small number when it is considered that the opening of the trout season is but two days off. However there are many places about the county where licenses are sold and this tends to keep down the number sold at the Treasurers office.

Merger Of Churches Near Completion

One more step has been taken in the plan to unite as far as possible Protestant denominations into a smaller number than are now extant has been taken by the merger of the Evangelical and the United Brethren in Christ denominations. The matter has been under discussion for a long period of time and the Evangelical General Conference has voted unanimously in favor of the merger. The United Brethren in Christ denomination's General Conference will not meet for another year but it is expected that then favorable action will be taken.

The name of the new denomination will be the Evangelical United Brethren Church the words, in Christ, being dropped. Locally the two congregations favor the merger and when it is completed action will be taken locally. The two congregations may unite or they may continue to worship in separate churches. This is a matter for the future that will be worked out when the merger is made.

CORYDON

Corydon, April 11.—An Easter Communion service was held Sunday morning in the Methodist church. It followed a most inspiring message delivered by Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Corydon and Kinross Methodist churches. Rev. Johnson, paying fine tribute to both men and women in the nation's service, spoke also of the loyalty and support owed them and further stressed that today more than ever we need of a religious sense of duty and the courageous facing of it.

There was an excellent attendance at the Nazarene Sunday school classes Sunday morning in the local edifice, where a fine program was presented in honor of local servicemen. A special tribute was paid First Class Private Frank D. Black, who lost his life in Italy. A poem written by Carl O'Dell, of Salamanca, honoring the deceased hero, was read by Mrs. B. M. Stoltz. Outstanding and most worthy of mention was a religious script entitled "A Handful of Clay" reviewed by Mrs. Alan Pfautz. The pastor, the Rev. Alan Pfautz, offered a timely message. Two honorary members were among the congregation, namely Gayle Smith and Garth Stoltz.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Reggie Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams, and Miss Beverly Kiernan, of Frewsburg, N. Y. The marriage took place Saturday evening, April 8th, in Jamestown, N. Y. Following the ceremony the newlyweds left for Pittsburgh to visit his brother, Marion Williams, and Mrs. Williams. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams. Reggie Williams is well and popularly known here and attended the local schools. He and his bride have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

On Easter Sunday Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Stoltz entertained a large group of relatives and friends at a dinner party in compliment to their son, Garth Stoltz, leaving to join the armed forces. The honored guest was presented a gift of money. Thirty attended the dinner that included the C. C. Brownes, of Bruin; the John Heddens, Allegheny; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stoltz and family; the Garth Stoltzes, Bradford; Mrs. Lena Carnahan and daughter, Jean, Cherry Creek; the Harry Hammonds, of Salamanca, and many others.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church was held Thursday last at the home of Mrs. Marshall Gardner. Approximately eight were present. A quilt was presented by the society to Mrs. Phyllis Marsh English, a recent bride. A buffet supper concluded the meeting. Mrs. Nell J. Caldwell will serve as the next hostess.

A trustees' meeting and election of officers took place recently at the Nazarene church parlors. Thomas Arthurs, is the newly elected superintendent of the Sunday school, while Mrs. B. M. Stoltz was re-elected president of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, of which Mrs. Alan Pfautz was last week's hostess with a number in attendance.

The Friday Club members met with Mrs. Jessie Bennett. Cards were played during the afternoon. High card token was awarded to Mrs. Lottie Whyte, traveling and consolation tokens to Mrs. Geo. Prue. The hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. Gerald English has returned from a recent trip to Richmond, Va., where she visited her husband, Seaman Second Class Gerald English.

Miss Edna Hedrick spent the Easter vacation period at her home in Helen Furnace.

Pennsy Seeks Men Between Ages of 16½ and 60 Years

Steel mills in Pennsylvania are critically in need of iron ore to fill emergency orders for material to build tanks, landing barges, and guns essential for our troops now on the move toward the European invasion sectors. Great quantities of ore are now on barges waiting for the lake ice to break, permitting them to steam into port. Immediately on docking, the ore is unloaded into railroad cars for fast run to the mills.

The railroad equipment to haul the ore is ready, but men to operate and keep this equipment in repair are still to be recruited. Freight brakemen and firemen are sought to run the trains, mechanics and helpers to keep equipment in repair and track gangs to keep tracks, road beds and bridges in shape to stand the heavy pounding of trains.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is combing the adjacent country offering to the unemployed or those desiring employment in an essential industry, the privilege of backing up their boys who are now on the fighting fronts.

On Wednesday, with the hearty cooperation of the War Manpower Commission, the U. S. E. S. and the U. S. Railroad Retirement Board, a representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company interviewed quite a number of men at the U. S. E. S. office. These men will fill a few of the local vacancies but many more are needed.

On Friday, April 14th, a Labor and Wage Examiner from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and a representative of the United States Railroad Retirement Board will again be present at the U. S. Employment office to interview men between the ages of 16½ and 60 who may be used on track jobs, shop and track helping, on train crews and various types of railroad work in this vicinity.

Interested persons who are not already employed in an essential industry can secure further details and referrals at any time from Mr. David W. Levine, Manager of the Warren office of the U. S. Employment Service.

Old C. Gull Proudful Of His Prediction

Old C. Gull swooped and zoomed over the river this morning chortling to himself as he flew low over the waves and shook a wicked wing at a bunch of black crows watching some Victory Gardens sticking in onion sets. Behind him like a formation of P-35s sailed a half dozen other gulls and they screamed and squawked in a most noisy way.

"So put down in your book that high water is coming. Nope, I don't mean we're gonna have a flood, but the river will raise and let me say that nine feet of water in your sewage puddle is not to be sneezed at."

"You see, it's like this. We get tired of those ciscoes, herring and yellow perch up in Erie and so when the wind is just right we flap our way over the hills and dales to the Allegheny. Then when it rains and the river begins to rise the little bass and suckers feed near the top of the water and we do the rest. Yummy. I'll say those bass are good and the suckers, too, have a nice flavor. One thing about the Allegheny river fish is that you don't have to have a salad with 'em. They have plenty of oil on their hides and they slide down real easy."

"So put down in your book that our sixth sense tells us when it's gonna rain and the water's gonna rise and then we come sailing in. But no floods, mind you, no floods."

Sixteenth century armor manufacturers discovered that fluting metal gave it strength and rigidity without adding weight, a principle used today with corrugated iron and steel girders.

Abaca fiber, used in Manila rope, is not grown commercially in the United States and before the war most of it came from the Philippines.

Watch is being kept at down river points and it is thought that the body will be found far down stream.

RIVER IS FALLING

After reaching a stage of nine feet the river began to fall this morning and danger from any flood is considered nil at the present time. Lowlands along the river and creek were covered with water and some water got on the Beaty playgrounds but not enough to do serious harm. Small streams are also falling about the county and trout fishermen are hopeful that by Saturday the streams will be in such shape that a good catch of fish can be made.

DISPLAY WON ATTENTION

Warren streets were covered last evening by a short parade showing the jeep and armored car which were in the city. Headed by a police cruiser car, the VFW band and the jeep and car several streets were covered. The display drew much attention to the fact that men and women are needed at the Embarkation camp near Greenville. Several left today for that place having accepted places there. Lieut. ### Houghton Choir Singing Sunday At Grace Church

Interested musicians in the community are invited to join with members and friends of Grace Methodist church at three o'clock Sunday afternoon in enjoyment of a concert of sacred music to be given by the Houghton College Choir.

Directed by Caro M. Carepetyan the choir is in its 13th season and this is the first year in several terms that no Warren county community is represented in its personnel.

As a concert organization, the choir has traveled more than 50,000 miles and has given more than 350 concerts and 35 radio broadcasts in 15 of the United States and in Canada.

The group devotes itself exclusively to the presentation of sacred music, programs including some of the greatest composers from Palestrina to F. Melius Christiansen. The simple lullaby and gospel hymn, the majestic chorale and motet, this variety of musical expression has been profoundly inspiring to choir audiences everywhere. Although for the duration, its travel is restricted, the type and quality of its ministry of music remains of the same high calibre.

Because of this mid-afternoon choral presentation, the usual 7:30 evening service will be omitted in Grace church Sunday.

ESCAPE from PARIS

by Marion McClure Stewart

Chapter 12

SINCE Johnny had watched Adrienne disappear from sight in the nave of the church, he had remained sitting in the same position. All about him worshippers rose from their knees and left the church. He wondered if Herr Schafer was a this moment occupying a seat in the rear, or if he had gone, leaving someone else to guard the entrances. He recalled seeing a man who appeared to be following him. Adrienne was constantly in his thoughts. He felt anxious lest she should become implicated in his attempt to escape. Suddenly a hand was laid on his shoulder.

He looked up and saw the friendly smile of a white haired elderly priest, who bent down and said quietly, "Come with me. Adrienne awaits you in my little office. You must not attempt to leave here at present."

When they had reached the passage leading to the sacristy, the priest turned to him said, "It seems the Gestapo agent is guarding the entrances. He must have seen you come in here."

"I had an idea I was being followed, but I didn't suppose once I was in the church the agent could have recognized me in that dim light."

"No, it is hardly likely," Father Andre scanned the younger man keenly. "These Gestapo agents are very clever. They have evidently had orders not to outrage the dignity of the Church in France unnecessarily; so they prefer to make arrests outside its precincts."

BEFORE opening the door of his office, Father Andre paused, his eyes on his companion. "My son, Adrienne tells me that you care deeply for each other. Johnny, taken by surprise, did not reply instantly. His eyes lighted up as they met those of the priest.

"I care for Adrienne more than I can say, Father."

"She is a marvellous girl, and in my opinion the man who gets her will be very fortunate. It is your favor, monsieur, that my dear friend, Pierre Dussault, thinks highly of you. Possibly I can perform the ceremony."

"Thank you, Father. Though Adrienne refuses to leave France at present, I feel it would be easier for us to part for a time if we belonged to each other."

As the priest entered with Johnny, Adrienne arose.

"Johnny, G. has answered my prayer for your safety. This is my dear friend, Father Andre."

The priest smiled. Johnny's hand. "We have already become acquainted," he returned. "Adrienne," he said seriously, "Is it your wish that I should unite you and this man whom you love, in marriage?"

"Yes, if Johnny wishes it," she faltered.

Farrel caught her hand in his and drew her towards him.

"Then I will call Father Perriard to assist me, and witness the signing of the register," Father Andre said.

"But the ring—I have no ring," exclaimed Johnny, as the thought struck him.

Father Andre rose and unlocking the drawer of a tiny cabinet on the wall, took from it a plain gold ring. "This will serve," he said handing the ring to Johnny.

Then he went out leaving them alone. Instantly he drew her into his arms.

"SWEETHEART," he whispered, "it is wonderful to think that you will soon be mine, even if it will be only a short time before we are separated."

She clung to him as he kissed her.

"That crafty Nazi thought it wiser to wait," he said, "but Father Andre will let me leave by a secret exit through the crypt. So we must hope for the best, dear. By the way I present a sorry spectacle in this get up for a bridegroom," he added ruefully.

"That doesn't matter," Adrienne smiled. "I know how handsome you can look, my darling. Speaking of the secret exit, Father Andre can send a messenger before you leave to find Henri Boulanger and tell him to meet you at that entrance so that you need not enter the market place. He is to take you for the night to a house on a side street opening off the Boulevard Sebastopol."

Afterwards it seemed to Adrienne that the ceremony had had a dreamlike unreality. Mechanically she had made the necessary responses; and as if in a dream from which she must suddenly awaken, Johnny's voice, clear and strong, came to her, repeating, "I, John Farrel, take thee."

The messenger who had been despatched by Father Andre to discover the whereabouts of the Gestapo agents, and to take the message to Henri Boulanger in stall 370, had returned. There was no sign of the agent in the vicinity at present, or of his men, and Henri was waiting for Farrel on the corner near the secret entrance. There was no time to be lost.

Those moments before the final parting now seemed so inextricably interwoven with happiness and pain, that the confused pattern of them was not yet clear to her. She could only recall broken words and phrases, the tight clasp of Johnny's arms, the pressure of his lips on hers, his repeated warnings as to the danger she ran in remaining in Paris, and his urging her to make plans to escape as soon as possible.

HE had torn a leaf from a small notebook and written an address that would reach him in England. She had promised to write by means of the underground postal service, and if possible to join him later.

She still sat immovable in the little sanctum, so dazed to think. When suddenly hearing footsteps in the outside passage, she sat up listening intently, the beat of her heart quickening.

The door opened. Father Andre came in again.

"There is nothing to worry about at present," he said smiling. "Monsieur Farrel was immediately joined by Henri Boulanger. My messenger who followed them for several blocks informs me they reached Henri's lodging house in safety."

A few minutes later she took leave of him, having requested him to make no mention of her marriage even to her uncle for the present.

While passing along the passage leading to the nave, she glanced down at the gold band on the third finger of her left hand, and with a pang drew it off, slipping it on the fine Boule chain that she wore about her neck, to which was attached a tiny silver rosette. Only in this way could she keep her marriage secret.

(By Joe Gardner)

Many of us remember those hectic days back about 1926 when the Conewango Cubs and the Nine Terrors staged their famous baseball fights to the bitter end. The Nine Terrors were a bunch of tough kids coming from the East Side and south of Pennsylvania avenue, while the Cubs, who were just as tough, hailed from the region of Conewango avenue.

In those days there was much more sandlot baseball played in Warren than at anytime since and the logical way to clinch any argument was to state that your ball club could beat the ears off any other club for 40 miles around—and the fight was on.

The Terrors were organized by Steve and Joe Massa. Naturally, Joe wanted to pitch, while Steve caught. Baseballs were scarce and this precautionary measure was used so that the brothers could keep the ball between them most of the time and, besides, what was the use of organizing a team if you couldn't be either the pitcher or catcher yourself?

"Coxy" Logan, "Hi" Hesch, the Lyle brothers and John Monroe helped make up the roster of the Nine Terrors. The Conewango Cubs had "Bob" Field and "Fritz" Mack for pitchers, "Nellie" Johnson, better known as Nelson Johnson, was the backstopper, while "Heinie" Anderson, Gerry Ostergard, Leo Driscoll and Frank Samuelson helped make up a well balanced team.

Came the end of a busy season, the Cubs and Terrors had licked every team in their class that dared challenge them, so these two clubs went to the mat for a final showdown for the mythical junior championship of Warren county. The first game of a three-game series went to the Cubs by a close score. No sooner was the game over than a loud wailing was heard from the Terrors' bench. Yes, you guessed it—Steve Massa was protesting the game on a technicality. No holds were barred during the second game and when the final check was made it was found that, either through better arithmetic or better baseball, the Cubs had won again. Words cannot do justice to describe the scene that followed. The winners had the box scores published; Steve refused to admit the loss, and there ensued a lengthy argument through the press. Reverberations can be heard even at this late date, for Steve will be glad to tell you, if you have time to listen, how his Terrors were robbed of the championship so many moons ago.

Pitching Greatest Problem Facing Giants This Season

By JACK HAND

New York, April 13—(P)—First division hopes are a-blooming in the New York Giants camp a week before the season opens, despite last year's dismal cellar finish, but pitching appears to bar the way.

Manager Mel Ott can count on last year's outfield and catching staff plus a renovated inner defense that has been bolstered by the veteran Paul Weintraub at first base.

The pitching is the big question mark with Cliff Melton figuring to be the No. 1 man although Bill Voiselle, who won 10 and lost 21 for Jersey City, has been showing enough spring stuff to be considered an opening day possibility. Reuben Fischer underwent a delicate spinal operation during the winter, but reports he's ready to go.

Ace Adams may be pressed into starting service after his brilliant relief work in 70 games last year and Johnny Allen, late in reporting, can be spotted with sufficient rest. Ewald Pyle, 30-year-old southpaw who failed at St. Louis and Washington in the American League, is fighting for a spot along with Frank Seward, 10-game winner at Springfield, Mass. Ken Bromell and Walter Ockey, army discharges, and Ken Miller, a free agent, complete the staff. Lou Polli has been promoted from Jersey City, off his 1.85 earned run average.

Weintraub at first base is hardly a major league innovation. He's been with the Cardinals, Reds, and Phils. Buddy Kerr, of Jersey City is at shortstop and Cuban Nap Reyes has shifted from first to third where he has been getting competition from Hugh Luby, a .313 cloutier from Oakland. The veteran Billy Jurges is likely to be the third sacker when he shakes off a leg ailment.

Ott's draft call probably has been delayed by a new Selective Service orders permitting him to at least start the year in right. Bruce (Fats) Sloan up from Little Rock with a .365 average, is his replacement. Johnny Rucker is back in center and Joe Medwick, predicting a return to the .300 circle, is a fixture in left. Charley Mead of Jersey City is the extra man, with Steve Filpovitz of Fordham and Dan Gardella of a New York shipyard team headed for the minors.

Ernie Lombardi is the No. 1 catcher, and that department seems to be in fine shape with the veteran Gus Mancuso and Rookie Joe Stephenson from Springfield, Mass., backing up old Schmozz.

Yanks and Giants Meet For Charity

By FRITZ HOWELL

New York, April 13—(P)—It's all for sweet charity today as New York's Yankees and Giants meet at the Polo Grounds and the Philadelphia Phillies clash at Ebbets field.

The Red Cross gets all the gate, and it's liable to add up to a fat figure. Regular prices are being charged, 35,000 are expected to see the Yank-Giant tilt, and no one knows how many will be on hand to see the Bums and the Bluejays.

Hank Borowy will start for the Yanks, and Cliff Melton for the Giants. Freddie Fitzsimmons, Phillie Skipper, will open for the Jaybirds, and Rube Melton will be on the hill for the Dodgers.

Fans Turn Out To Give Zivic Farewell

Pittsburgh, April 13—(P)—Fritz Zivic, his ring career apparently at an end, was at the army's New Cumberland reception center today to start a new career as a buck private.

The ex-welterweight champion headed a contingent of eight inductees from Local Board No. 9 out in the "strip" district where Zivic grew up and first learned to use his fists—that left last night. The Pennsylvania station was crowded as a throng of well-wishers jammed against the gates to give the irrepressible Zivic a thundering farewell.

Last Night's Bouts

By the Associated Press
Elizabeth, N. J., Tony Janiro, 137, Youngstown, O., outpointed Johnny Williams, 135, New York, 6, Jerry Cursol, 140, Valley Stream, N. Y., outpointed George Johnson, 141, New York, 6, Clint Miller, 122, Elizabeth, knocked out Jack Panni, 122, Puerto Rico, 2.

Among the Army's anti-aircraft gun directors is one which not only directs the angle of fire, but also sets fuses so that the shells will explode in the path of an enemy plane.

At the end of 1940, the labor of 100 direct workers was required to build a Liberator bomber in one year. Now the requirement is but seven, and the ratio is still improving.

RED RYDER

BY FRED HARTMAN

Contender At Pinehurst Is a Dark Horse

Pinehurst, N. C., April 13—(P)—George McCallister of Spartanburg, S. C., champion of that city for four years, emerged today as a dark horse contender for the title in the 44th North and South Amateur golf tournament.

McCallister, who has been up and coming since his ace in the first round of the Durham opened a fortnight ago, upset Pete Ladislav, a favorite, 3 and 2 yesterday. The North Hills, L. I. shot-maker had tied with Bill Cozart of Durham, N. C., for second place in the qualifying round and was regarded as a possible finalist with medalist Mal Galletta of St. Albans, N. Y.

Cozart beat Jack Ryerson of Cooperstown, N. Y., 6 and 4 in their quarter-final match; Galletta won from S. B. Gardiner of Plandome, L. I., 3 and 2; and Jim Fownes of Pittsburgh, who advanced to the quarter-final with a 1 up victory over Pfc. Alec Thomas of Camp Mackall on the 27th hole, eliminated Stedman Tinker of Columbus, O., 3 and 2.

The semi-final pitted Galletta against Cozart and McCallister against Fownes.

China's first blood bank has been established on the Yunnan front, where it will be used as a model for other blood banks.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 13—(P)—Although there's nothing in the wording of the new draft ruling regarding men over 26 that even hints at the status of baseball players, some baseball men who have their ears tuned to Washington wavelengths insist that it means their athletes won't be called... "The army doesn't want 'em and they won't try to force ball players into war jobs," said one. "It's like the limited service men. They told us down there, 'there's only one place for those fellows and that's right on your ball clubs.'"

An Oklahoman who figures that anonymity is the better part of valor, forwards the reports that medical discharges in the army these days are accompanied by Tulsa U. football posters. But if Coach Henry Franke really has the army dogs organized that much, it probably was to keep the Giants from signing 'em all as baseball players.

Latest report on the growth of "kid" baseball comes from Milwaukee, where the "Stars of Yesterday" program, begun in 1936, operated with 85 teams last year.

Teams are named for former Brewer stars, hence the tax... A notable feature of the project is a baseball school, conducted by former pro players, which has drawn more than 6,500 kids to "Professor" Jack Kloza's lectures and nearly 11,000 at the outdoor classes.

One-Minute Sports Page

Jimmy Johnston has accepted an offer for his re-treaded heavy-weight, Tony Shucco, to fight Turkey Thompson in Hollywood, Calif., late in May, but in making the bid Promoter Joe Lynch insisted that Jimmy must accompany Shucco on the fight was off... Paul Richards, Detroit Tigers' catcher, wrote sports for the Waxahatchie, Tex., "Light" last winter... Big Bill Frelove, owner of the Los Angeles Mustangs, is trying to organize an eight-club pro football league on the west coast to start operations next fall.

A Rookie A Day

Louis American (Crip) Polli, New York Giants—who called him a rookie? He's 40 years old and in 1930, when he had a trial with the Yankees, Bob Shawkey told him he'd never be a big leaguer... Nevertheless Crip showed enough at Jersey City last year (leading the league in earned run averages with 1.85) and in spring training to earn promotion. A little guy, he pitches more with his head than with his arm and some day when the batters have the range of that short right field wall at the Polo Grounds, he may think it's his head sailing into the stands.

DEWEY VETOES BILL

ON LIQUOR SHIPMENTS

Albany, N. Y., April 13—(AP)—

A bill which would have prohibited out-of-state sale of wines and liquors until July 1, 1945, was vetoed today by Governor Dewey on the ground it might produce "retaliatory" legislation by other states.

Dewey lauded the purpose of the bill which, he said, was to "assist in the enforcement of the federal allocations of liquor and wines in respective states and to have an additional instrument in the elimination of the black market in liquor and wines."

"The federal constitution and federal system, he added, is based "upon the proposition that for purposes of trade and commerce, the nation is an inseparable unity."

Harbor installations at Feodosiya were bombed, and four landing barges and a torpedo boat sunk, while others were damaged.

Constanta, big Romanian Black also was heavily bombed, Moscow said. Constanta is 230 miles

Hansa Bay, Japan's barge and supply base on the northeast coast of New Guinea, apparently is marked for the same methodical destruction from the air already heaped on other important enemy strongholds in the southwest Pacific.

A 210-ton bombing Tuesday raised to 830 tons the explosive weight dumped on Hansa bay by Allied planes in the past few days.
Destroyer bombardment and P-51 boat attacks have added to the reduction of Hansa Bay's defenses.

In the central Pacific, American planes ranged over Japanese tar-northern Kurile islands to Truk, raids on by-passed enemy bases in the eastern Marshall islands.

364 Have Appointments With Blood Bank Unit Next Week

Three persons from Warren will be making their sixth blood donation when the Mobile Unit from Buffalo visits Warren next Monday and Tuesday. Thirty will be giving for the fifth time.

All told 364 persons have been given appointments for the April visit. All those who have been notified to appear on Monday or Tuesday are urged to be on time. Members of the Blood Bank Committee stated this morning that some 40 persons who were sent notices, by mail, to appear on one of these two dates have not replied. It is hoped that replies will be received soon.

Among the donors who will give blood on the next visit of the Blood Bank are a group of 26 men from Warren and Tool Co., many of whom will be making their 4th and 5th donations. These men come to body and officials of the Red Cross appreciate the policy of the Company which encourages group visitations such as this.

Among those who will make donations next week are 69 first time donors. These 69 more than offset some 37 that are permanently lost this month as donors. Most of these 37 losses are due to service inductions. The majority of those who will donate this month are those last called in January though some 160 January donors will be called in May.

Members of the Blood Bank Committee also revealed that many of next week's donors will come from Youngville and Clarendon. These communities have long been enthusiastic supporters of the Blood Bank.

Red Cross War Fund Campaign to Continue

(Special to the Times-Mirror)

Washington, April 13.—The Red Cross War Fund campaign will continue into April until the Fund has been oversubscribed. Leon Fraser, national campaign chairman, announced today in revealing that the drive was approaching final success.

"On March 31, incomplete returns from our chapters show we have raised approximately $168,000,000 toward our minimum goal of $200,000,000," he said. "Of our 3,755 chapters, about 40 per cent have reached or exceeded their goals. The remainder have not yet finished their campaign and will continue until they reach their quotas. This is indispensable if we are to carry on Red Cross work for our fighting men."

"Last year we reached the minimum objective of $125,000,000 in 43 days. This year, in spite of the larger national quota, we expect to achieve our minimum goal at an early date."
